NEIGHBOURHOOD WATCH

There has been an increase in Millennium Burglaries in the Colchester district please help to raise awareness by passing on the following information.

1. Ensure that your premises and property are secure at all times.
2. Ensure that your motor vehicle is kept secure and if possible, immobilized at all times.
3. Keep your house and motor vehicle keys on separate key rings and secluded, out of view.
4. Be vigilant at all times.
5. Report any suspicious incidents.

Boxted's Neighbourhood Specialist Officer is PC (2910) Vicky Sanders tele: 0300 333 4444 x13400 or mobile 07966 197134.

A Millennium Burglary is a domestic burglary where they are after the car keys primarily but also take other items from the premises and as these started in 2002 they are termed as Millennium burglaries. This type of burglary used to be called key fishing.

CRICKET CLUB MATCH REPORT

TC5 11th Sept Witham Away - Boxted batted first on a damp start and made a good start through Richard Pickford 49, but then completely fell apart to 124 all-out. In reply Witham coasted to an easy victory without losing a wicket.

PDQ2 12th Sept Ardleigh Home - Boxted struggled with the bat again scoring on 98 with Will Stairmand 33 the top scorer. Despite losing 3 early wickets Ardleigh won by 7 wickets in a canter.

PDQ4 12th Sept Eight Ash Green - Boxted kept up their good run of late as they dismissed their hosts for 110 with Picky Moncrieffe taking 4-25. In reply Boxted reached their target for the loss of 6 wickets & have given them a outside chance of promotion with one game to go.
