MATCH REPORT FOR CRICKET CLUB

This week's winning reports!

2nd August TC5 home vs. Earls Colne - Inserted, Boxted made excellent progress as most batsmen got a score. Five batsmen posted scores of between 21 and 42, with the innings built around a superb unbeaten 98 from skipper Ed Whybrow. The final score of 283-6 was our best of the season in the Two Counties. In reply Earls Colne briefly threaten to chase down the runs, but spinners Ian Evans 4-35 and young Sean McGovern 3-33 wrapped the innings up as Boxted won by 120 runs.

2nd August PDQ home vs. Little Clacton - Although a home fixture this was played away due the first team playing at home. Batting first Little Clacton score an imposing total of 267-5 despite some brave efforts in the field. In reply Boxted got off to a flying start with Rich Springett 80 and Tim Bellamy 66 in particular in fine form. Despite the loss of a few wickets Matt Francis 22 not out steered the side home to victory by 4 wickets with a couple of overs to spare.
