CRICKET RESULTS

July 4th TC4 - Copdock Away - Boxted batted first and after a good start wilted in the sunshine to a disappointing 168 all-out, with Justin Rishworth top scoring unbeaten on 36. In reply the home side coasted to a 7 wicket victory with plenty of overs to spare.

July 4th PDQ3 - Gt Horkesley Home - Boxted put up a good score against their local rivals of 233-8, with Clive Honey making a useful 62. However this was not enough as Gt Horkesley reached this for the loss of only 4 wickets.

July 5th PDQ3 - Abberton Home - The visitors batted first and despite an excellent bowling return of 5-24 from Sylvester McKnight reached a good total of 250-7. Boxted though were not daunted and James Stairmand with 106, well supported by McKnight with 53 enabled us to record our 2nd victory of the season as the total was reach for the loss of 4 wickets.

July 5th PDQ Plate 1st rd - Kirby Away - Boxted batting first score a formidable 348-9 with Ed Whybrow yet again narrowly missing out on a century this time with 91. He was well supported by Pat Gilbert 64 and Jon Wilson 52. The home side were restricted to 205, to allow us to progress to the next round against Earls Colne & Bures in a few weeks time.
